

The spectral localizer for topological solid state systems

Hermann Schulz-Baldes
FAU Erlangen-Nuernberg

Abstract

The spectral localizer is a 2×2 matrix containing the Hamiltonian and the position operators. The talk gives a review how it can be used to compute Chern numbers, winding number, weak invariants, \mathbb{Z}_2 -invariants and invariants in semimetals and non-hermitian systems. This is illustrated by some numerical examples.